

Arts Co-ordinator

Part-time • Small Charity • Community Arts Programme

Do you believe in the power of creativity to bring people with a wide range of disabilities together and change lives?

Reach Inclusive Arts have an exciting opportunity for an Arts Co-ordinator to join our small team to develop and manage the implementation of a wide variety of arts based opportunities, in the local community, to people who have disabilities.

In this 12 month fixed term contract you will work closely with a range of partners, contractors, volunteers and supporters to develop and deliver projects that support the realisation of the Charity's Missions, Vision and Values.

If you're creative, organised, and enjoy working directly with people, this role offers the chance to make a meaningful impact every day.

As our Arts Co-ordinator, you will:

- Support the planning and delivery of a varied programme of workshops, events, and creative projects
- Work hands-on with disabled participants of all ages, backgrounds, and abilities
- Build strong relationships with local groups, schools, artists, and community partners
- Support group administration, including monitoring, evaluation, and reporting
- Help promote our work through social media, newsletters and features
- Ensure all sessions are safe, inclusive, and aligned with our policies and values
- Have a current driving licence and access to a vehicle.

This is a role with real variety — from running workshops to shaping new projects, supporting volunteers, and helping tell the story of our work.

We're looking for someone who is:

- Experienced in delivering arts activities or creative projects
- Confident engaging with diverse groups and individuals
- Highly organised, adaptable, and comfortable managing multiple tasks
- A strong communicator with a positive, collaborative approach
- Passionate about creativity, inclusion, and community engagement

What we offer:

- A friendly, supportive team
- The opportunity to shape and grow our arts programme
- A role where your creativity and ideas genuinely make a difference
- Personal development opportunities
